BIOGRAPHY

SPECIAL AGENT (SA) RICARDO E. FERNANDEZ, Retired

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI)

SA Ricardo “Rickey” Fernandez’ law enforcement career dates back in excess of 35 years. He was formerly with the New Orleans Police Department from 1969 until 1981. In January, 1982, he joined the Office of Naval Intelligence, Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS), as a civilian Special Agent and was assigned to the U.S. Naval Bases in New Orleans. He was eventually transferred to the U.S. Marine Corps Base at Camp Pendleton, California. SA Fernandez subsequently joined the FBI in February, 1985. As an FBI agent, he was transferred to the Tampa (Florida) Division where he worked for over 4 years. He was again transferred to New York City and worked there for over 3 years. SA Fernandez was subsequently transferred back to New Orleans in June, 1992, and retired in October, 2004.

SA Fernandez is a General Police Instructor and has taught “Interviewing and Interrogation” classes for the past 12 years. SA Fernandez has specialized his teaching of interviewing techniques with an emphasis on “Kinesic and Neuro-linguistic Interviewing” to a broad-ranged audience of local, state and federal law enforcement officers. He has taught at numerous police academy and post-academy classes and conferences. SA Fernandez was a continuing guest speaker at the Louisiana State Police academy, and the annual Justices of the Peace and Constables Conference for the Louisiana Attorney General’s Office. He has lectured extensively to many federal agencies including the US State Department, Federal Aviation Administration, Transportation Safety Administration (TSA), and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). Additionally, he has taught interviewing to security personnel with various corporate entities including BellSouth, Avondale Industries, and numerous banking and financial institutions. SA Fernandez has previously lectured on workplace violence and criminal personalities.

SA Fernandez’s academic background includes having graduated cum laude with a Bachelor’s degree in Criminal Justice from Loyola University. He also holds two master’s degrees, a Master of Science degree in Urban Studies from the University of New Orleans and a Master of Science in Criminal Justice from The University of Alabama where he achieved a perfect 4.0 grade point average.

SA Fernandez has taught classes at the FBI Academy in Quantico, Virginia. He is also an adjunct faculty member of Tulane University where he teaches interviewing and interrogation courses. While employed with the FBI, he worked primarily matters related to Foreign Counter-Intelligence (FCI). He was an EEO counselor for 10 years and was also an EEO mediator.
